ABOUT RMDC

Rahbar Medical & Dental College (RMDC), established in 2012, is an institution committed to excellence in medical education. Since April 2013, RMDC has been affiliated with the University of Health Sciences (UHS), Lahore. The college gained formal recognition from the Pakistan Medical & Dental Council (PMDC) on 17th February 2014, and from the Ministry of National Health Services, Regulation & Coordination, Government of Pakistan, on 12th February 2015. In February 2017, ownership of the college was transferred to the Punjab Rangers.

The RMDC campus is situated within the secure and tranquil premises of the Punjab Rangers Headquarters, located on the dual carriage Harbanspura Road, just a 5-minute drive from Allama Iqbal International Airport, Lahore. The college's purpose-built campus is a blend of modern architecture and functional design, ensuring accessibility and comfort. Constructed in accordance with PMDC guidelines, RMDC is equipped with state-of-the-art educational facilities, including lecture theatres, demonstration rooms, laboratories, museums, a skills lab, a library, an auditorium, and staff offices, all meeting the latest teaching standards.

Adjacent to the college, across the road, is the Punjab Rangers Teaching Hospital (PRTH), a 551-bed tertiary care facility. PRTH serves a diverse patient population from across the country and provides comprehensive training opportunities for RMDC students, ensuring a robust clinical education. With cutting-edge infrastructure and a commitment to fostering the next generation of healthcare professionals, RMDC continues to strive for academic excellence and the holistic development of its students.
